Lieut. Charles Raymond Blake of Westerly, under date of Oct. 14, wrote an interesting letter to James McCormick concerning the award to him of the distinguished service cross, not realizing that the fact was promul-rated in all newspapers in the United States. He sent clippings from the London Daily Mail of Oct. 11 and from the Paris edition of the New York Heraid which are identical with the reports published here, Lieutenant Blake is in the aviation section of the signal corps. He writes:

My Dear Friend Jim: Got some good news this trip, or at any rate it is so good to me that I almost went crazy when I learned it. It came in an edd way. I happened to be looking over the Paris edition of the New York Heraid of Oct. 11 and the clipping is enclosed. * * I've won the Ameri-can distinguished service cross! You have abready received in account. have already received an account of the "show" which wounded my ob-server, Lieut, Earl W. Porter. He and I received this high decoration * * * (Here is given the citation as printed in Monday's Bulletin.) What lauding citations. What more does one need to supernaturally drive on his spiril for a country so generous, that country which he loves and claims as his!

BUILT ON HONOR Palmer Brothers' Comfortables

There's a little local pride when we say "Palmer Brothere" Comfortables." They're made right here in this little corner of Connecticut - they're made by Connecticut people - real people - and they're well made and correctly priced.

Palmer Brothers buy the best, and put that best into these pretty, cold-repelling bed coverings, which are so warm and light. The patterns and colorings are chosen with care, the filling is clean and sanitary. The whole effect is pleasing, and they give warmth without weight. There are others made, and others advertised, but you will not find more worthy comfortables anywhere than these.

THE PRICES ARE $3.50 TO $15.00

It is a great country and there, is plenty to see, but there's no place like the old U. S. A. The people do everything over here as they did in America two hundred years ago. But there's one thing, if anything is built you can make sure it is going to last! we ought to be satisfied with only we are now in a small town about one.

This is all for this time, so hoping Hartford the first of the week at the this letter will reach you in the best Marcy cottage.
